CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

LE CORPS

Knowing the parts of the body can come in handy when playing sports, clothes shopping, seeing the doctor, and more. Learn how to talk about your body in French, from head to toe. Also, be careful of the word for hand, la main, which appears to be masculine but is really feminine. The same goes for tooth, which is la dent.

NOTE -

The possessive adjective is almost never used with body parts in French. You rarely say things like "my leg" or "his hair." Instead, the French use reflexive verbs to show possession with body parts.

For example:

Je me suis cassé la jambe. > I broke my leg

Il s'est lavé les cheveux. > He washed his hair
