

CHAPTER-04

A Bicycle built for two

THEME OF THE POEM

The poem throws light on the longing of an eel to ride a bicycle. He is determined to ride on a wheel. It tries really hard, however does not get successful. In order to ride the bicycle it makes several efforts, however, is not able to ride the bicycle properly. It manages to sit on the seat of the bicycle but cannot hit both the peddles of the bicycle as he cannot sit astride.

Later, he tried to jump and hangs itself over the top of the bicycle. Then it faces another issue i.e. it keeps on riding nevertheless it cannot stop now. Another problem is how it would steer the bicycle. Chances are it might flop.

In the meantime, there was another eel who was also the neighbour of the first eel was observing this humorous affair and suggested it with a brilliant idea. He proposed that both of them will fasten their waists with a bottle green belt and strap it firmly. Thereafter, they will hop on over the seat and squirm so that they both can peddle using their tails and ride the bicycle.

And there they were, all set to live their dream and ride the bicycle as they longed in the beginning of the poem. Changing your Tomorrow
