TELL US A TALE -Edward Shirley

1. What did the children ask their mother to do?

Ans- The children asked their mother to tell stories.

2. What did the children say they would not do?

Ans – The children said they will not speak and won't stir / move unnecessarily.

3. Which stories did the mother suggest?

Ans- Mother suggested stories like Aladdin and the lamp, Puss in boots, Jack and the beans stalk, Red riding hood and Cinderella.

1. Write three adjectives to describe the children. Explain your choice of adjectives.

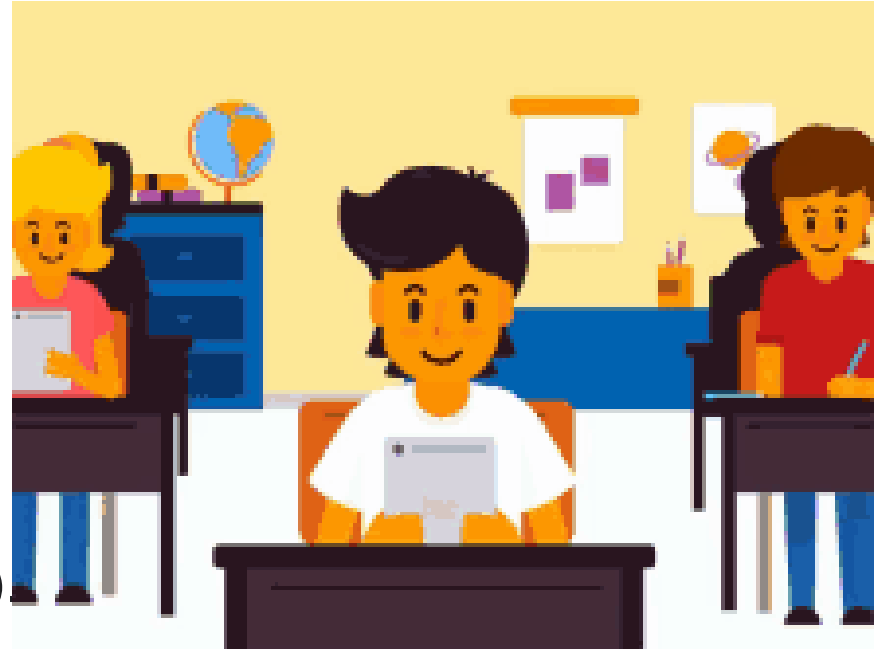

Ans- The words like good, gold and obedient described the children. I think the children are very good because very pleasingly they ask their mother to tell them stories by convincing that they will behave very good while listening a story.

2. Why did the children say they will not speak or stir till the tale is told?

Ans- The children wanted their mother to tell them stories and convinced her that they will not speak or move about until the story is completed as the children don't want their mother to get disturbed while telling stories.
