

SESSION : 4
CLASS : IV
SUBJECT : ENGLISH
CHAPTER NUMBER: 5
CHAPTER NAME : THE PIED PIPER OF HAMELIN
SUBTOPIC : Phonic junction, Grammar junction

CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

GRAMMAR

JUNCTION

Lets read this sentence from the story

The town was full of smiling faces once again.

The word smiling is formed from the verb smile.
Sometimes, verbs that end in -ing are used as adjectives.

Ex- Look how sweetly the baby is smiling.

We also use the -ing form of a verb in continuous tenses.

1. Underline the verbs used as adjectives in these sentences.

a. The dancing daisies looked beautiful.

The dancing daisies looked beautiful

b. The prancing horse was trotting past the winning line.

The prancing horse was trotting past the winning line.

c. The creaking door scared my pet cat.

The creaking door scared my pet cat

d. The tiring day finally came to an end.

The tiring day finally came to an end.

e. Dad caught two fish with the new fishing rod.

Dad caught two fish with the new fishing rod.

2. Complete these sentences using the adjectives given in the box.

Racing

burning twinkling

barking

exciting

buzzing

setting

a. The _____ lights lit up the home beautifully.

twinkling

b. _____ bikes can go as fast as 100 kmph.

racing

c. My sister clicked a picture of the _____ sun.

setting

d. The smell of _____ tyres filled in the air.

burning

e. It is an _____ game to play.

exciting

f. _____ dogs are a nuisance to people living nearby.

barking

g. The bees make a _____ sound when they collect honey.

buzzing

Homework

Do Q 3, pg. 50 in your notebook

LEARNING OUTCOME

The students get the clear concept about the use of verb used as adjectives.

THANK YOU