CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

Let's Recap

Transitive Verb

- Transitive verbs are action verbs that have an object to receive that action.
- I bake some cookies.
- I ride the bicycle.
- I move the chair.

Intransitive Verb

- Intransitive verbs are action verbs but unlike transitive verbs, they do not have an object receiving the action.
- I laugh.
- I cry.
- The book falls.

Let's look at these sentences

1. Manish walked.
2. The child cried
3. Kavita smiled
4. The river flowed

quite meaningful

The verbs in these sentences do not require/needs objects to complete their sense.

A verb that does not requires an object to complete its sense but makes good sense by itself is called an intransitive verb

HOME WORK

Write 3 examples of each, transitive and intransitive verbs

Learning Outcome

Students recognize that

- A transitive verb, used with a direct object, transmits action to an object and may also have an indirect object, which indicates to or for whom the action is done.
- In contrast, an intransitive verb never takes an object.
