What is the difference between developed and developing economy (HOT)

Material Things

Two Types of Values

• Tangible

- Material things in our lives
- Usually cost money to obtain
- Examples: jewelry, cars, clothes, etc.

• Intangible

- Non-material things in our lives
- Usually can't be bought with money
- Examples: love, honesty, kindness, etc.

Only a life lived in the service to others is worth living

WHAT IS NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT?

NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Every person has their own thoughts and notions towards the development of the country.

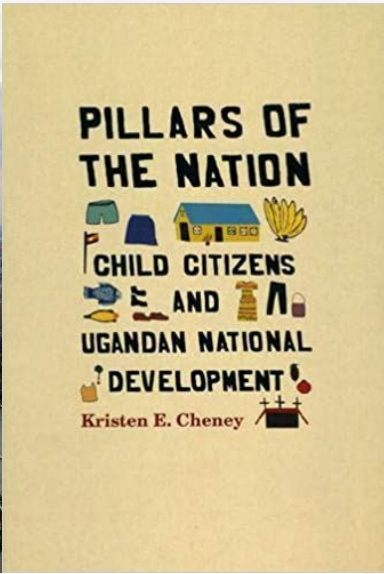

NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT is the process of reconstruction and development in various dimensions of nation and development of every individuals.

This sort of development is also the ability of a country to improve the social welfare of a people.

All the wealth of the world cannot help one little Indian village if the people are not taught to help themselves. Our work should be mainly educational, both moral and intellectual.
