Let's begin the story..

- Long time ago there was a small town in Germany called Hamelin.
- It was a beautiful town but the townsfolk faced a big problem!
- They were troubled by rats.
- RATS! RATS! EVERYWHEREEEE

- Rats were everywhere in houses, shops, schools and in every nook and corner of the town.
- People were so worried that they decided to meet the town mayor.

- The mayor and his officers listened to their stories and started discussing how to get rid of the rats.
- Suddenly all were greeted by a strange looking man. He wore multi colored clothes, a bluish feather on his cap and a bright smile his face.

- The stranger said that he was aware that their town was infested with rats and he can help them get rid of it.
- In return he wanted to get a reward.
- The mayor could not believe he was offering a solution to the problem.
- He replied "You will get ten thousand gold coins"

- Next morning the town woke up to a strange music. Soon the rats were running out from everywhere, running out to follow him.
- The man started walking towards the jungle and disappeared with all the rats behind him.

- The people of Hamelin were ecstatic.
- The town was full of smiling faces again.
- Soon the pied piper went to the mayor to take his reward but instead of giving him his full reward the mayor only gave him five hundred gold coins.
- The pied piper left the place angrily.
