CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

- Folktales were used to explain things that were difficult to understand
- to discipline (or frighten) children, or to provide a moral lesson.
- Folktales can take the form of legends, myths, fairy tales or fables

Get going

B. 1. Why do you think the people of Hamelin were depressed after meeting the mayor?

Ans - The people of Hamelin were depressed after meeting the mayor because he was not able to come to any solution of how to get rid of the rats.

2. Why did the mayor refuse to pay the full reward after the Pied Piper got the town rid of the rats?

Ans- The mayor might have thought that it was not a big deal that was done by the Pied Piper to get the town free of the rats as he only blew some strange music from his pipe.

3. Why do you think the Pied Piper took the children away?

Ans- The Pied Piper took the children away as he got angry with the mayor as he did not give him the full reward as promised.

C. 1. Is there any other way in which the Pied Piper could have solved his problem?

Ans- I don't think any other way could have got his money back because the mayor was a shrewd man and he wouldn't have listened anything.

2. Where do you think the Pied Piper went at the end of the story?

Ans- The Pied Piper must have gone to some unknown land or place where he could help people facing similar problems.
