

SESSION : 13
CLASS : IV
SUBJECT : ENGLISH
CHAPTER NUMBER: 5
CHAPTER NAME : THE PIED PIPER OF HAMELIN
SUBTOPIC : Vocabulary junction,Phonic junction

CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

- State the difference between a prefix and a suffix.
- Give the meaning of a word by studying the prefix and suffix used.
- Widen vocabulary by creating new words with prefixes or suffixes.
- Form meaningful sentences by using words with prefixes or suffixes

VOCABULARY JUNCTION

Suffixes are placed after words to modify their meanings; like prefixes, they are groups of letters that rarely serve a purpose unless attached to a word.

SUFFIX	MEANING	EXAMPLES
-able/-ible	capable of being	portable, legible, preventable, adaptable
-ac/-ic	like/related to	cardiac, iconic, organic
-acy	state/quality of being	privacy, legitimacy, bureaucracy
-ious	full of	gracious, malicious, ambitious
-al	related to	logical, philosophical, bacterial

Prefixes

A prefix is an affix (letter or group of letters) attached to the beginning of a word that partly indicates its meaning.

Prefix	Definition	Example
anti-	against	antibiotic
bi-	two	bicycle
dis-	apart, away from	dissatisfied, disillusion
hyper-	extremely	hyperactive
inter-	between	interaction, intermingle
intra-	within	intracoastal
intro-	inward	introduction
macro-	large	macroeconomics
micro-	tiny, small	microscope
mis-	wrong	misuse, misinform
mono-	one	monolingual
multi-	many	multinational

A suffix is a letter or set of letters added to end of a word to form a new word.

A prefix is a letter or a set of letters added to the end of a word to form a new word.

Word + Suffix = New Word

berry	-es	berries
baby	-ish	babyish
run	-er	runner
adore	-able	adorable

Prefix + Word = New Word

dis	connect	disconnect
re	do	redo
co	exist	coexist

Examples -

1. He works for a multinational company.
2. Hari still remembers his preschool days.
3. The conference is held biannually.
4. We bought vegetables from the supermarket.

The prefix

multi means many

Pre means before

Bi- means twice or two

Super- means of the highest quality or degree

1. Match the adjectives in column A to their meanings in column B

A

Multipurpose

Yellowish

Spanish

Historic

Angelic

Boyish

Allergic

Bimonthly

supersonic

1. Match the adjectives in column A to their meanings in column B

A

Multipurpose

Yellowish

Spanish

Historic

Angelic

Boyish

Allergic

Bimonthly

Supersonic

B

can be put to use for many purposes

yellow in colour

a person from Spain

something important and famous

a person or place that looks calm showing the behaviour/ features of a boy

to have a dislike for a substance

twice a month

having a speed greater than that of sound

through air

Phonics Junction

Let's read these sentences from the story

An excited girl in the crowd shouted, Look! The Pied Piper.

The pied piper looked angrily at the mayor and walked out without saying a word.

The letters ir , or and ur in the words girl, word are pronounced in the same way.

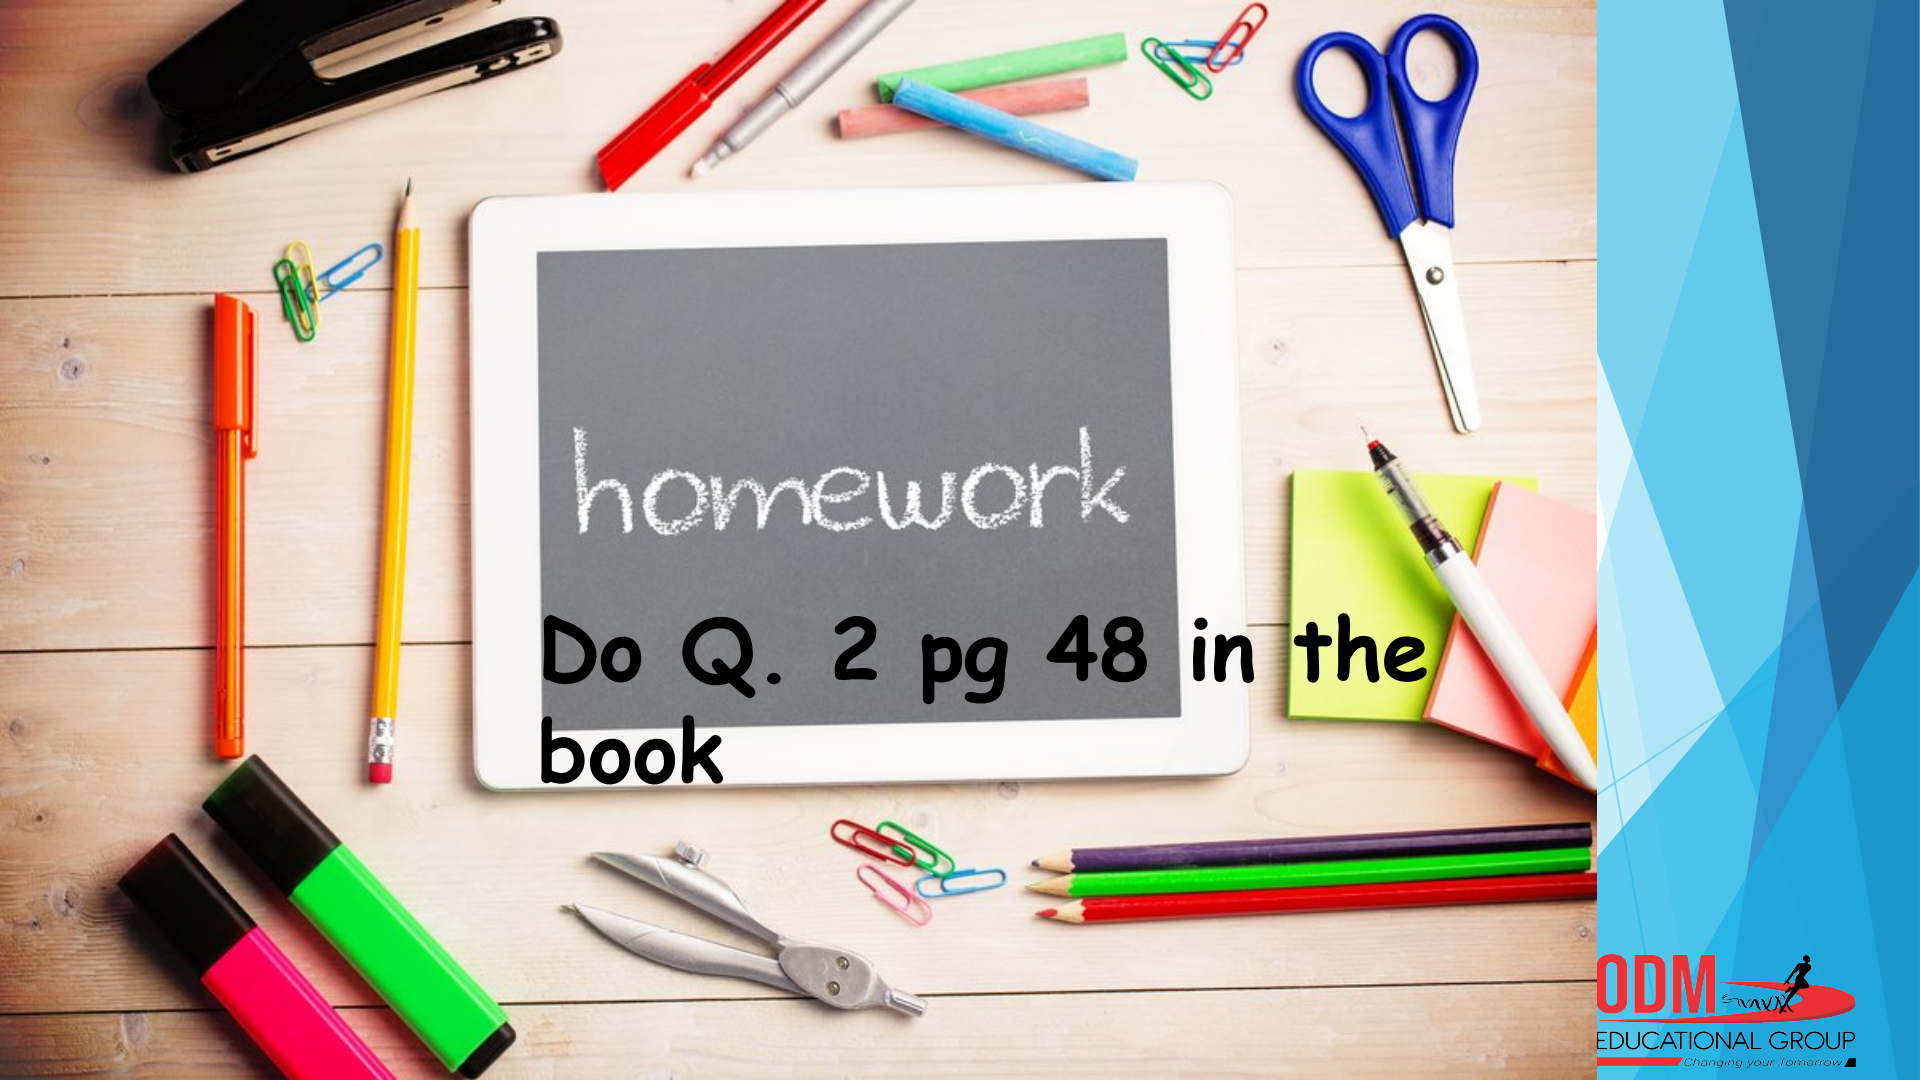

Let us look at some words that are pronounced in a similar manner

were prefer nerve person
perfect
service
verb

word
work
worst
world
worth
worse
worm

turn
burn
return
hurt
church
Thursday
burst

girl
dirty
birthday
circle
firm
shirt
skirt

homework

Do Q. 2 pg 48 in the book

THANK YOU