

REVISION WORK – 2

1) Do as directed.

a) I love watching beautiful birds.(Underline the gerund)

ans) I love watching beautiful birds.

b) Pinaki bought a dictionary for him.(Spot the transitive verb)

ans) Pinaki bought a dictionary for him.

c) The peacock looks magnificent while dancing. (State whether transitive or intransitive)

ans) The peacock looks magnificent while dancing. Intransitive

d) The poor little boy helped the animal himself. (Spot the underlined word as reflexive or emphatic pronoun)

ans) Reflexive

2) Extract based questions .

"On his way there he felt his ears burn, when he thought of the stork and her tall, tricky urn."

a) Whom does 'he' refer to?

Ans) 'He' refers to the fox.

b) What is the secret behind burning ears?

Ans) The secret behind the burning ears was the return of the ill treatment to the fox. He had done the same to the stork first.

c) Name the poem and the poet from which the extract is taken.

Ans) The name of the poem is ' The Fox and the Stork' and the poet is Jean Fontaine.

3) Draft a notice to inform the students of std 4 to 8 about the dance competition. You are Mehul Kumar, Activity in charge. Give all the necessary information.

Ans) Format – 2
Content – 3