LEARNING OBJECTIVE :

The learners will learn the use of simple past tense in sentences.

Simple Past Tense

What is Simple Past Tense??

- The Simple Past Tense talks about actions or events that have already happened.
- We add -d, -ed, or -ied to verbs to change them to their past tense form.

Examples-

1. Arya received a letter.
2. I walked for an hour yesterday.
3. Sam tried hard to grow beautiful flowers.

RULE:

If a verb ends with a vowel , we add -d to change it to its Simple Past form.

Gracy closed the door quickly.

The boy smiled at us.

RULE:

If a verb ends with a consonant , we add -ed to change it to its Simple Past form.

The boy pushed his friend's car.

The children played in the park.

RULE:

If a verb ends with a consonant followed by a 'y', we change 'y' to 'i' and add -ed to change it to its Simple Past form.

The baby cried whole night.

Soniya tried to catch the butterfly.
