PREPOSITIONS

IN AND ON

The book is on the table.

The book is in the bag.

The cat is on the couch.

The cat is in the box.

In and on are prepositions. They tell us where the book and the cat are. Prepositions are words that show position and time in a sentence.

Examples:

There are two pillows on the bed.

The apples are in the basket.

1. Fill in the blanks with in or on:

- a. The book is on the table.
- b. Can you please keep these clothes in the cupboard ?
- c. The chocolate is in the fridge.
- d. The cat slept on the bookshelf .
- e. Please come in.

In is also used to talk about a period of time such a days, years, months and seasons.

On is also used to talk about a day or date on which a particular event happens.

Example –

We enjoy holidays in summer.

India got its freedom on 15th August.

Let us learn about some more prepositions

at:

at is used to talk about specific time or place.

Example –

The train will depart at 10 o'clock.

Let us meet at the cafe.

Under:

- Under is used when someone or something is below something else.

Example –

The boy is standing under the tree.

The dog is sleeping under the table.

Over:

Over is used when someone or something is above something else.

Example –

The horse jumped over the fence.

The honeybees flew over the flowers.

Below and Above:

Below is used when something is kept/placed at a position lower than something else. Above is used when something is kept/placed at a position higher than something else.

Example –

The dog is below the cat.
The cat is above the dog.
