

Chapter- 11

Conjunctions

STUDY NOTES

Conjunctions are used to join words, phrases or sentences.

1. Choose the correct conjunction to fill in the blanks.

and,	but,	or
------	------	----

a) I bought cookies, chips and a cake for my birthday party.

b) Shyam is a good artist, but he likes playing cricket more.

c) Should we buy roses or lilies?

d) Rohan and Priya go to the same school.

e) I should study for the test, but I am too tired.

2. Match each conjunction with its use.

After - to show that something happened or will happen later than some other action.

Before – to show that something happened or will happen earlier than some other action.

When – to show the time of action.

While – to show actions happening simultaneously.

3. Correct the conjunctions in these sentences.

b) You must always wash your hands before having food.

c) Govind saw a puppy while he was walking in the park.

d) I shall do my homework before the holidays.

e) It was already evening when we reached the hotel.

4. Rewrite each pair of sentences by joining them with the correct conjunction.

- b) Do not switch on the TV before you finish your homework.
- c) I practiced dance while my sister did her homework.
- d) Sunaina got this scar after she fell off the jungle gym.
- e) I cleared the table before I ate the dinner.

