Write a paragraph on 'Birthday Party'

My birthday is on April 10th. My parents have planned a small birthday party to celebrate my birthday. They will invite all our relatives and my friends to join the party on time. My mother will bake a huge chocolate cake for me. We will decorate the house with lots of colourful balloons. I have decided to buy a party dress for the special occasion. I know, like every year my parents will give a surprise gift to me this year also. We will play music on that day after cake cutting, we will dance and play games. I hope this year also we will have a great fun on my special day.
