Luckily, Gulliver was a good swimmer. He swam and swam, and finally reached an island. He was so tired that he fell asleep. He slept for a long time.

When he woke up. He found himself tied to the ground. He tried to move but could not. He tried to untie himself but could not.

Gulliver looked around and saw that he was surrounded by tiny men. He starred at them in disbelief.

They were no larger than his thumb. He tried to free himself but they started attacking him with their sticks

Gulliver did not want to hurt them back. So he stayed still. When the tiny people saw that he was not trying to harm them, they brought him food and water.

They had to bring a lot of food and water as Gulliver was very hungry and thirsty. Then they lifted him on a huge cart and carried him to their king.
