

SESSION : 5

CLASS : III

SUBJECT- SOCIAL SCIENCE

CHAPTER NUMBER: 03

CHAPTER NAME :CONTINENTS AND OCEANS

SUBTOPIC : LONG QUESTION ANSWERS

CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

Learning Objective

To enable the learner to:

- Know about continents.
- Know about oceans.
- To solve different questions

Circle the odd one:

- 1. East, west, map, north
- 2. Map, atlas, globe, sea
- 3. Pacific, Atlantic, Asia, Indian
- 4. Africa, Asia, India, North America
- 5. Sea, ocean, continent, river
- 6. River, sea, ocean, country

Write the statement is “true” or “false”: -

- A very large body of water called continent. F
1. Compass an instrument used to find direction. T
 2. Continent is a very large landmass on the Earth surface.
 3. A globe is a model of the Earth. T
 4. There are five main directions. T
 5. Arctic is the largest ocean. F
 6. Australia is the smallest continent F
 7. Oceans are very deep. T
 8. There are eight continents. T
- F

Answer the following questions ■

1. What is a continent?

Ans. A very large landmass on the surface of the Earth called continent.

2. What is an ocean?

Ans. A very large body of water.

3. Why is a map more useful than a globe?

Ans. A map can show the features of the Earth in greater details.

4. How do we find directions on a map?

Ans. In the map top part is north, the bottom part south, to right is east and to left is west.

5. Draw a compass and describe it.

Ans. compass is an instrument used to find direction. Its needle always points to north.

HOME ASSIGNMENT:

Draw a compass and write its uses in project record

Learning outcome

Learner will able to know

- Know the different oceans .
- Know the continents.
- To solve the questions

THANKING YOU
ODM EDUCATIONAL GROUP