'Hello, can I help you?' asked the man at the store.
'Yes, it's my pet cat that I have come shopping for.'
'Well, of course young man,
What do you need?' queried the man.

‘A collar and a tether to start with,’ said I
‘A collar, sure yes, but a tether for the kitty?
They are for pups; let’s get your kitty a collar bow.
Come this way; see what we have to show.’

We passed by arrays of things and pets
Charmed I was at the sight of colourful lovebirds
In hues of pink, yellow, purple and snow.
There were rabbits too and goldfish in a bowl.

Rhyming words

What is a rhyme?

A rhyme is when words sound similar.
