‘Hello, can I help you?’ asked the man at the store.
‘Yes, it’s my pet cat that I have come shopping for.’
‘Well, of course young man,
What do you need?’ queried the man.

‘A collar and a tether to start with,’ said I
‘A collar, sure yes, but a tether for the kitty?
They are for pups; let’s get your kitty a collar bow.
Come this way; see what we have to show.’

We passed by arrays of things and pets
Charmed I was at the sight of colourful lovebirds
In hues of pink, yellow, purple and snow.
There were rabbits too and goldfish in a bowl.

'Is that a lizard in that box amidst those balls?
Hey! But aren't they supposed to be crawling up walls?'
'That's called a gecko; some love them as pets to keep Others like turtles or frogs that leap.'

'Oh, then I might want a turtle, and a tiny frog
Only, I need to find a pond and a bog.'
'Sure, they are yours. And the collar bow too?'
'Oh, right, I think for now just the collar would do!'

Get Going

A. Let us find the answers from the poem.

1. Read the following sentences. Write T for true and F for false.

a) The boy went to the pet store to buy some food for his pet cat. F

b) The boy saw a rabbit for sale at the pet store. T

c) The boy saw a gecko inside a box at the pet store. T

d) The boy saw lovebirds of many colours at the pet store. T

e) The boy bought a tiny frog from the pet store. F

B. Let us read between the lines.

1. Why did the man say the tethers are for puppies and not for cats?

Ans) The man said that tethers are for puppies and not for cats because tether is a rope or chain that is used to tie an animal to a fixed object and usually it is done with puppies, not with cats.

2. Which animal at the store surprised the boy? Why did it surprise him?

Ans) There was a lizard like animal named gecko, which surprised the boy. It surprised him because it looked like a lizard but it was kept in a box.
