STORYTIME

The fox and the crow

Mr Crow was perched upon a limb,
And Reynard, the Fox looked up at him;
For the Crow held in his big black beak
A morsel the fox would go far to seek.

Morsel – a small piece of food

Said the Fox, in an admiring tone: My word!

Sir Crow, you are a handsome bird.

Such gorgeous feathers! If you would only sing,

The birds of these woods would call you king.

NEW WORDS

- Admiring – showing admiration
- Gorgeous – beautiful
- Woods – forest
