CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

LEARNING OBJECTIVE :

- ❑ Students will be able to understand the concept of the poem.
- ❑ They will recite the poem with correct pronunciation and intonation.

THE FOX AND THE CROW

The fox and the crow

The flattered Crow, who did not see the joke
Forget that his voice was just a croak.
He opened his beak, in his foolish pride –
And down fell the morsel the fox had spied.

Morsel – a small piece of food

Flattery _ insincere praise for one's own interests

Haha! Said the fox. And now you see you should not listen to flattery vanity is indeed a horrid vice –
I'm sure the lesson is worth the price.

Jean de La Fontaine

NEW WORDS

Vanity- excessive pride in oneself

Vice – a bad quality

Perch- rest on something

Limb-branch of a tree
