WHAT WE EXPECT TO LEARN?

1. The students will come to know how the economic activities are divided on the basis of nature of work.
2. They will be able to understand the work of the people who are engaged for primary and secondary activities.
3. They will also realise that without tertiary activity the development of primary and secondary activity can not be possible.

INTRODUCTION

Sort these into primary, secondary and tertiary sectors

Sectors of Industry

Although there are hundreds of different jobs or occupations, they can all be classified into 4 categories:

Primary

Working with or the extraction of natural resources e.g. Farming, mining or forestry

Secondary

Making things either by manufacturing or construction e.g Nissan Car manufacturing

Tertiary

This type of industry provides services. These include commercial services (Shops), Professional (Solicitors), Social (School teacher), entertainment (restaurants), Personal (Hairdressers)

Quaternary

This is a new sector and is linked to ICT and research development (Genetics Researcher)
