

WELCOME TO ECONOMICS CLASS

SUBJECT : ECONOMICS
STD-X

CHAPTER: THE SECTORS OF INDIAN ECONOMY
PERIOD:4

SUB-TOPIC:Where the most of the people employed and how to create more employment

CHANGING YOUR TOMORROW

WHAT WE EXPECT TO LEARN?

1. The student will be able to understand that even though the Indian economy is growing, the importance of the tertiary sector is increasing day by day, but actually, people are more employed in the primary sector.
2. They will also realise why it is happening in the Indian economy.
3. They will also understand that to solve this problem, what are the ways to create more employment.

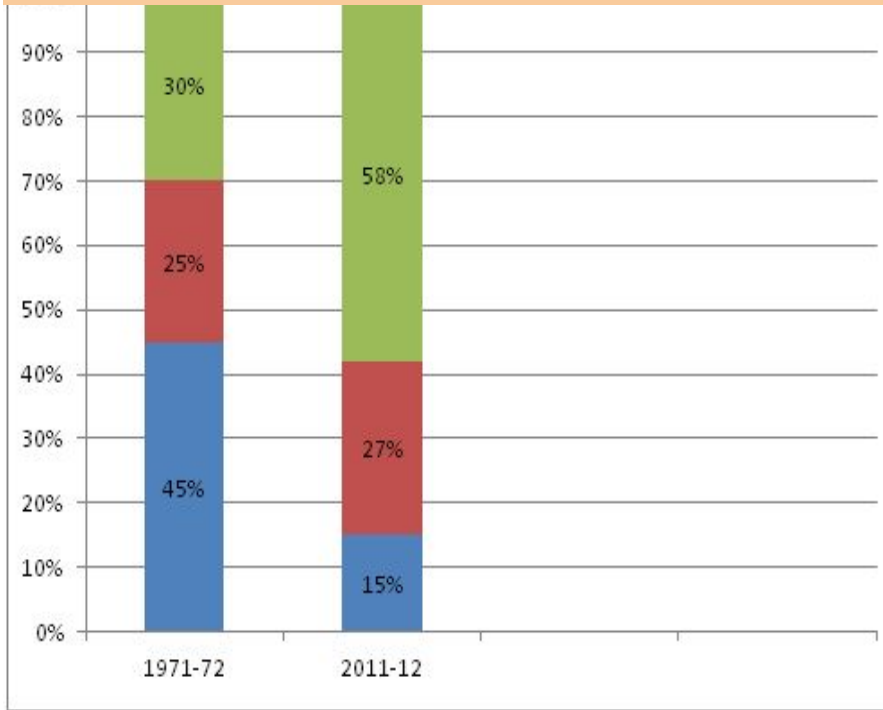

Recapitulation of the previous class

1. During the initial stages of development, which is the most important sector of economic activity?
2. Name the sector of economy that does not produce any good.
3. Do you think all nations follow a specific pattern of development?
4. Why is the tertiary sector becoming important in India? Give two reasons.

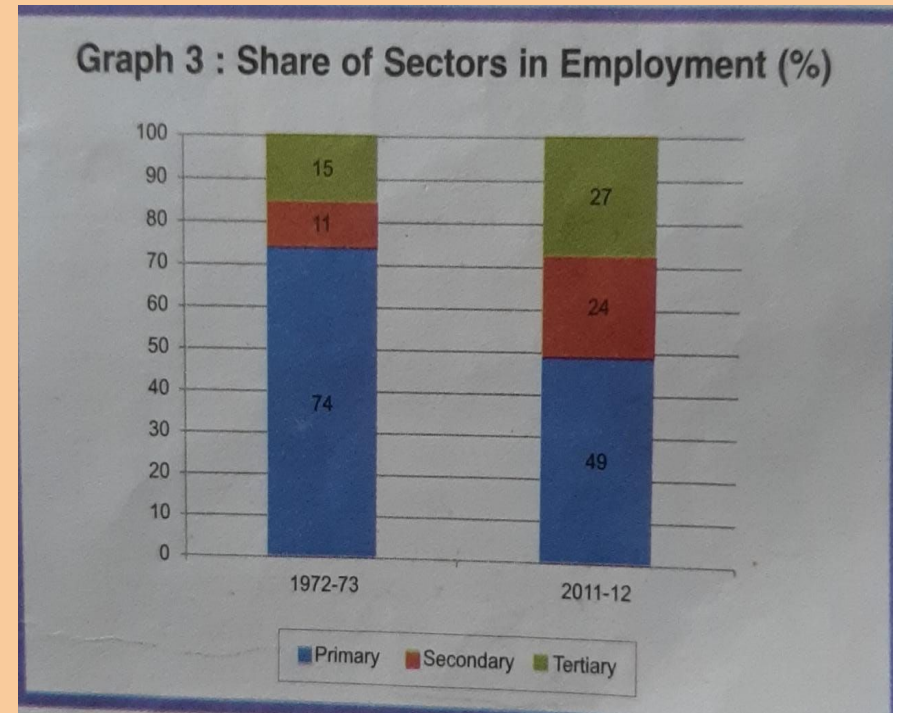

WHERE THE MOST OF THE PEOPLE EMPLOYED?

SHARE OF SECTORS IN GDP (%)

SHARE OF EMPLOYMENT %

SHARE OF SECTORS IN EMPLOYMENT:

SECTOR	YEAR	EMPLOYMENT %	YEAR	EMPLOYMENT %
PRIMARY	1972-73	74%	2011-12	49%
SECONDARY	1972-73	11%	2011-12	24%
TERTIARY	1972-73	15%	2011-12	27%

HOW TO CREATE MORE EMPLOYMENT?

Technical and Institutional measure

Promotion of Allied agriculture

Pollen foraging

Bee Keeping

Honey Harvesting

Honey Glass Bottles

Focus on small scale industries and bank credit

Improvement in rural infrastructure

Improvement in education, health and tourism

Home assignment

1. What does the history of developed countries indicate about the shifts that have taken place between sectors?
2. Which was the largest producing sector in 1971-72?
3. Which is the largest producing sector 2011-12?
4. Can you say which sector has grown the most over forty years?
5. What was the GDP of India in 2011-2012?
6. Where are the most people employed, and why?
7. Why is the tertiary sector becoming the most important in India.?

THANKING YOU
ODM EDUCATIONAL
GROUP

