Words that describe a noun or a pronoun in a sentence are called adjectives .

Now let's learn how adjectives are used to compare two or more nouns or pronouns.

An adjective in its base form is said to be in the positive degree.

Example –

clean, easy, heavy, fat, nice etc.

When we add –er at the end of an adjective to compare two nouns, we call it in the comparative

Example –

Clean – cleaner

Easy – easier

Heavy – heavier

Fat – fatter

Sweet – sweeter

We add –est at the end of an adjective to compare more than two nouns. This form of adjective is said to be in the superlative degree.

Example –

Clean – cleaner - cleanest

Easy – easier - easiest

Heavy – heavier - heaviest

Fat – fatter - fattest

Sweet – sweeter - sweetest
