

Chapter- 7

Adverbs of time

STUDY NOTES

English Grammar

www.iken.in

ADVERBS OF TIME

Jane must eat dinner early.

↓ verb                      ↓ adverb of time

IkenEdu

We have learned about adverbs in Grade 1 and Grade 2. We know that adverbs describe how and where an action takes place.

Answer key (Grammar book pg no - 34)

Q 1. Underline the adverbs in the sentences given below.

- The cheetah runs very fast.
- The old man walked into the house slowly.
- Dry leaves were scattered here and there.
- Where are you going?
- Arrange these books neatly.

In addition to what we have already learned. There is another kind of adverb.

Examples –

- I saw Sally today.
- I will call you later.
- I have to leave now.
- I saw that movie last year.

Adverbs that tell us when an action happens are called Adverbs of time.

More examples-

- I often eat vegetarian food.
- He never drinks milk.
- You must always fasten your seat belt.
- I am seldom late.
- He rarely lies.

Q2. Underline the adverbs of time in the following sentences.

- I need to go now.
- Can we meet tomorrow?
- I cannot come tomorrow.
- I was living with my grandparents then.
- See you soon!

Q3. Find five adverbs of time in the grid given in the book.

- Soon
- Then
- Never
- Now
- Tomorrow

Q4. Fill in the blanks with the correct adverbs of time from the box given in the book.

- I exercise daily.
- You need to submit the homework tomorrow.
- Did you come to school yesterday.
- The flowers bloomed late in summer.
- He visits his cousins frequently.

Q5. Identify the mistakes in the adverbs of time in the sentences given in the exercise and correct them.

- Bye! See you later.
- We just now finished dinner.
- Exercising daily is a good habit.
- I have regularly finished my homework.
- Rimjhim is still eating.