

Chapter- 6

Plants: Preparing and Storing Food

WORKSHEETA. Fill in the blanks.

1. The presence of substances called _____ makes a leaf green.
2. Green leaves need air, water and _____ to prepare food.
3. The process of preparation of food by green leaves of plants is called as _____.
4. An opening on the underside of a leaf is known as _____.
5. The food prepared by plants is in the form of _____.

B. Answer in one word.

1. The tiny pores on the underside of leaf. _____
2. The leaves of some plants, which appear in dark red. _____
3. Few non green plants, which do not have chlorophyll. _____
4. Some plants do not have leaves and they prepare their food with the help of stems. _____
5. Main vein which run along the center of the leaves. _____

C. Choose the correct answers.

1. The main vein of the leaves carries?
a) chlorophyll b) oxygen c) food d) starch
2. On the underside of leaf openings is _____.
a) stomata b) midrib c) side vein d) green cells
3. The food prepared by plants is in the form of _____.
a) Simple sugar b) starch c) photosynthesis d) roots

4. Non green plants, which do not have chlorophyll.

- a) Moulds b) mushrooms c) both a and b d) None of these

5. Adding bleach and Iodine can turn the colour of leaves.

- a) croton b) red substances c) dark red d) blue-black

