The presented poetry piece " Dad And The Cat And The Tree" has been written by Kit Wright. The poet has drawn the living picture of a funny event of his life. The event can be described in following ways: -

*Ignoring warning - Kit Wright says that a cat was stuck in the tree and his Dad decided to rescue it. When he was going bring the cat down poet's mother warned him but he was overconfident that he ignored her warnings.

*Trials to rescue - The poet says that his father had to make several trials in order to save the cat. Firstly he fell in the garden as the ladder slipped. Secondly he tried to climb up the tree but the branch broke and he fell down of the ground. Finally he climbed up the wall of the garden and jumped on the tree. But unfortunately he landed straight on the cat. The cat yelled but jumped down safely. Dad got stuck himself upon the tree in place of the cat.
