

Chapter- 2

Early Humans- Hunters & Gatherers

WORKSHEETMCQ

1. Stone Age is divided into:
 - a) Two periods
 - b) Three periods
 - c) Four periods
 - d) Five periods
2. Tools were used by early humans during the
 - a) Skin the animals
 - b) Cut the roots of the plants
 - c) Scrape the bark of the trees
 - d) All of these
3. Fire was discovered by early humans during the:
 - a) Palaeolithic
 - b) Mesolithic
 - c) Neolithic
 - d) Chalcolithic
4. Microliths were:
 - a) Small and sharp tools
 - b) Tools for digging the ground
 - c) Musical instruments
 - d) Earthen toys

5. . Microliths were made by early humans in the

- a) Palaeolithic Age
- b) Mesolithic Age
- c) Neolithic Age
- d) Chalcolithic Age

1mark

1. What are the three divisions of the stone age?
2. What are the sources of our knowledge of the stone age?
3. Why did the Old Stone Age people have to move from place to place?
4. What are microliths?
5. Name the few habitations sites of Palaeolithic Age.

2 marks

6. What type of shelter and clothes were used by the old stone age people?
7. How did the people of Mesolithic age get their food?

3 marks

8. What are cave paintings? What is their significance?
9. What is the significance of the inventions of fire?
10. What was the natural change that occurred around 9000 BCE?

5 marks

11. What were the favourable conditions for human settlement that existed in the Hunsgi-Baichbal valleys
12. Explain the technique of making tools by early humans.