

Chapter- 7

A Baker from Goa

WORKSHEET

1. Read the given extract and answer the questions that follow. (1X4=4)

Our elders are often heard reminiscing nostalgically about those good old portuguese days, The portuguese and their famous loaves of bread. Those eaters of loaves might have vanished but the makers are still there. We still have amongst us the mixers, the moulders and those who bake the loaves. Those age-old timetested furnaces still exist. The fire in the furnaces has not yet been exyngushed.

- (a) What do the elders still reminisce about?
- (b) Who are the 'eaters of loaves'?
- (c) What are the things that we possess even today?
- (d) Which word in the above lines mean the same as 'thinking'?

2. Answer the following questions in about 30-40 words each. (2X3=6)

- (a) How were the bakers dressed up in the author's childhood days?
- (b) How would the baker attract the children?
- (c) Even today any person with a jackfruit like appearance is easily compared to a baker. Why?
