

Deep Water

01. What are the specifications of Y.M.C.A. swimming pool as provided by the writer?
02. Which purpose is served by the reference to the writer's mother, in the lesson?
03. Why was the initial aversion of the writer to water?
04. "I was frightened. Father laughed". What is the contradictory element present in the lines?
05. What was the writer's conduct in the swimming pool, before the misadventure?
06. How is the bruise of a boy described?
07. What did the healthy boy do with the writer?
08. What was the proposed plan of the writer, while he was sinking?
09. What do you think about the actions and feelings of the writer during his first dipping?
10. Describe how a sense of helplessness came into the writer in his second dipping?
11. The third sinking was quite terrorising. How?
12. "The curtain of life fell". Explain the statement.
13. What was the reaction of the fat boy after the mishap? What might be his intention?
14. What was the impact created by the incident in the writer?
15. How does the writer react to the cascades related experiences?
16. Why is the mention of a number of fish in the lesson?
17. What role does the trainer play in the writer's life?
18. Describe how the swimming schedule was undertaken by the trainer.
19. In spite of repeated invading fear, the writer was bent on continued swimming practice. Why?
20. What is said about the writer's presence and the absence, in the context of the lesson?