FRENCH SUBJECT PRONOUNS

Subject pronouns are a type of personal pronoun that indicates who or what is performing the action of a verb.

The different subject pronouns are determined by number and person.

- Number is divided into “singular” (one) and “plural” (more than one).
- Person includes “first person” (the speaker), “second person” (the listener), and “third person” (neither the speaker nor the listener).
- Thus, with two numbers and three persons, there are a total of six grammatical persons, each of which has at least one French subject pronoun:
 - je, j' – I
 - tu/vous – you
 - il – he
 - elle – she
 - on – we/one
 - nous – we
 - vous – you (plural)
 - ils – they (masculine plural)
 - elles – they (feminine plural)
