

Class homework

1. Habitat of an organism in a sense is the environment in which that organism generally lives.
2. The plants that are found in mountains are:- pine, maple, cedar, oak, Deodar etc.
3. Ants, cats are two organisms that lives in ~~clat~~ deserts.
4. There are 4 various types of habitat there are:- Desert habitat, mountain habitat, polar habitat and forests and grassland.

5. The types of components of habitat are:- shelter, water, food and space.