

A.) Fill in the blanks:

1.) Changes in the weather are caused

Primarily due to seasons.

2.) Frozen dew is also known as frost.

3.) The level of underground water in an area is called the water table.

4.) Air blowing towards the sea from the land is called sea breeze.

5.) Two chemicals which can kill germs in water are sedimentation and Filtration.

B.) Write whether the following statements are true or false.

1.) Earth keeps the sun warm. F

2.) Water goes up in the form of vapour. F

3.) Frost is advantageous to crops. T

4.) Land gets heated quicker than water. T

5.) Polluted water is harmful to drink. T

c.) Match the columns:

1.) condensation	Water vapour freezes in clouds
2.) clouds	Drinking water
3.) snow	millions of water droplets
4.) Hail	when water vapour is cooled
5.) waterworks	Water droplets freeze on their way down

D.) Answer in one word.

A.) A gas present in the air. which is necessary for burning. hot air

B.) Moving air. Wind

C.) The main source of water. Rain

D.) The thick layer of air surrounding the earth. crust

E.) Collection of rain water for future use. Water cycle.