

Chapter- 12

Air, Water And Weather

WORKSHEET

A. FILL IN THE BLANKS:

- Changes in the weather are caused primarily due to sun.
- Frozen dew is also known as frost.
- The level of underground water in an area is called the water table.
- Air flowing towards the sea from the land is called land breeze.
- Two chemicals which can kill germs in water are chlorine and bleaching powder.

B. Write whether the following statements are true or false

- Earth keeps the sun warm. False
- Water goes up in the form of vapor. True
- Frost is advantageous to crops. False
- Land gets heated quicker than water. True
- Polluted water is harmful to drink. False

C. Match the columns:

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| (i) Condensation | (a) water vapour freezes in clouds |
| (ii) Clouds | (b) drinking water |
| (iii) Snow | (c) millions of water droplets |
| (iv) Hail | (d) when water vapor is cooled |
| (v) Waterworks | (e) water drops freeze on their way down |

D. Answer in one word:

- A gas present in the air which is necessary for burning. Oxygen
- Moving air. Wind
- The main source of water. Rain water
- The thick layer of air surrounding the earth. Atmosphere
- Collection of rainwater for future use. Rainwater harvesting