

Chapter- 9

Animals: Living and Surviving

WORKSHEET

A. FILL IN THE BLANKS:

1. Animals that fly are called Aerial animals.
2. Amphibians have gills helps them to breathe in water.
3. Some animals sleep for several months to protect themselves from winter.
4. Animals that live on land are known as terrestrial animals.
5. The process of changing to suit the environment is called as hibernation.
6. Animals which fly has a light body because of Aerial and feathers.

B. CIRCLE THE ODD ONE OUT:

- | | | | |
|-------------|---------------|-----------------|--------------------|
| 1. LION | LEOPARD | ELEPHANT | WOLF |
| 2. FISH | TURTLE | DOLPHIN | GRASSHOPPER |
| 3. MOSQUITO | RABBIT | TAPEWORM | LEECH |
| 4. FROG | TOAD | SALAMANDER | BAT |

C. DRAW ANY TWO ARCTIC ANIMALS AND COLOUR THEM.

