

Chapter - 7

BUKKA LEARNS A LESSON.

2) Worksheet (Answers)

Bukka is an immature and very haughty elephant calf. He has a white mark on his forehead for which he can be easily identified.

The leader of the herd during that time is a tusker and he is looking large and powerful with big ~~tusks~~, well developed tusks.

Bukka is so careless because he thinks that what may come, he is sure that he will become the leader of the herd one day and everyone will fear him.

Q4 > I think the leader of the herd ^{which} will play a trick on Bukka to teach him a lesson by suddenly disappearing and ~~to~~ joining him again when he learnt a lesson.

Q5 > In the end, Bukka realises his mistake and finally finds himself near his mother and his herd.
