

Worksheet

1. Identify the direct object and indirect objects in the following sentences.

a) Can you make me some tea?

Ans → Direct Object → some Tea

Indirect Object → Me

b) I will get you something to drink.

Ans → Direct Object → something to drink.

Indirect Object → You

c) My mother told me an interesting story.

Ans → Direct Object → An interesting story.

1. Answer
1. Monday

Indirect Object → Me

4) I asked him the reason for his distress.

Ans-) Direct Object → the reason for his distress

Indirect Object → Him

5) If she is angry, please send her some flowers.

Direct Object → some flowers

Indirect objects → Her

6) I gave him my books.

Ans-) Direct Objects → My books.

Indirect Objects → Him

7) She asked me an important question.

Ans → Direct Object → An important question.

Indirect Object → Me

8) Dad bought me a bicycle for my birthday.

Ans → Direct Object → A bicycle for my birthday.

Indirect Object → Me

9) Please bring me that file.

Ans → Direct Object → That file

Indirect Object → Me

10) you still owe me a treat.

HW
Monday

Direct Object → A treat

Indirect Object → Me