

Air, Water and Weather

A. Fill in the blanks.

1. Changes in the weather are caused primarily due to Rotation of Earth.
2. Frozen dew is also known as Frost.
3. The level of underground water in an area is called the Water table.
4. Air flowing toward the sea from the land is called land breeze.
5. Two chemicals which can kill germs in water are chlorine and bleaching powder.

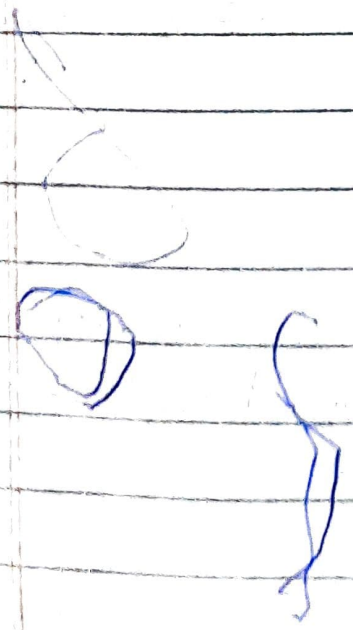

B. Write whether the following statements are true or false.

1. Earth keeps the sun warm. (False).
2. Water goes up in the form of vapour. (True).

3) Frost is advantageous to crops. (False)

4) Land gets heated quicker than water. ~~Polluted water is harmful to drink~~ (True)

5) Polluted water is harmful to drink. (True)

c) Match

f) Condensation — a) water vapour freeze in clouds

ii) clouds

b) drinking water

iii) Snow

c) millions of water droplets

iv) Hail

d) when water vapor is cooled

v) waterworks

e) water drops freeze on their way down

D Answer in one word-

a) A gas present in the air which is necessary for burning. atmospheric oxygen

b) Moving air. breeze

- c) The main source of water: ocean
- d) The thick layer of air surrounding the earth: atmosphere
- e) Collection of rainwater for future use.
~~atmospheric oxygen~~