

Stooping by Woods on a snowy evening

H.H.W

- i. The narrator is the speaker and he is in the forest right now.
 - ii. The owner of the house and the woods was referred as "his".
 - iii. The speaker stopped by the woods to watch the trees fill up with snow.
 - iv. The meaning of the word "woods" is forest.
- 2i. The speaker thinks he knows the owner because he probably lives in the village and won't see the speaker entering his area and watching his woods fill up with snow.
- ii. The woods belongs to ~~the~~ a person whose house was built there and he couldn't see the speaker stopping by his woods because he lives in the village away from the woods.

iii. The speaker is happy standing in the woods because he ~~is~~ is loving to see the beauty of the nature.