

- QA 1 The problem of the townfolk was the rats.
- 2 A strange man came to help the townfolk.
- 3 The rats trouble the townfolk as they would eat bread at a Bakery. They would jump in the pot of soup cooked for dinner. There were rats every nook and corner of town.
- 4 The extraordinary sight did the that the townfolk experience was all the rats of Hamelin followed the strange man toward the jungle till they got disappeared.
- 5 The pied piper get angry with the mayor because the mayor didn't gave him the promised amount.

Q B1 Soup - We bought soup from the stall.

2 Nook and corner - The rats every nook and corner of town.

3 Reward - I got a reward from our school.

4 Extraordinary - The pied piper is extraordinary.

5 Get rid - We need to get rid of rat.

1 People of Hamelin gather near the mayer office.

2 The following morning a strange man greeted them

3 The mayor offered ten thousand gold coins

~~as reward to the stranger as reward~~

4 The mayor broke his promise

5 The stranger took the children to the mountains