

Whittington and his cat

Q Answer the question?

Q Who was Whittington and why he came to London?

Ans Whittington was a young poor, orphan boy. He came to London to seek his fortune.

Q What kept him awake most of the nights?

Ans Whittington faced a big problem of rats in the attic where he slept that kept him awake most of the nights.

Q How can you say he was a daydreamer?

Ans Whittington loved to daydream. He would think of faraway lands where he would go on expeditions with his faithful cat and he imagined himself as a knight who rid the world of rat and received treasures as gifts.

④ Why he gave his cat to the captain?

Ans He gave his cat to the captain because all the servants of Fitzwarren gave some thing to the captain but poor whittington had nothing but the cat, so he gave his only friend the cat.

⑤ What do you mean by-scampered

Ans Scampered means run away quickly.
