

O.D.M Connect homework

1) What is Database?

As A database is a collection of information related to a particular object, such as phone no.s, list of library books, etc.

2) What is a Record?

As A row in a database is called a Record that consists of the information about one person or one object.

3) What is Field?

As A ~~row~~ column within a database that contains only similar type of data is called field.

4) What is form?

As A form is a window or screen that contains numerous fields or spaces to enter, modify, and view one record at a time.