

DATE: _____ PAGE: _____
Social science worksheet

Our Rights and Duties

1. Something that is passed on from parent to child is known as hereditary.

2. The directive principles give guidelines to the government for the welfare of the citizens.

3. The constitution has given the right and compulsory education for all children up to the age of 14.

4. The state is ruled by the king or queen is ~~known~~ known as Monarchy.

5. Our constitution is a set of rules based on which our government runs.

6. Our constitution was accepted on 26th january 1950 and we celebrate this day as Republic day.

C. Republic day

2. The _____ means that all the people in the country would be free to follow whatever religion they want.

a. Secularism

3. Ensuring that some people do not become rich by exploiting others is

a. _____.

b. Directive principles.

4. We must defend our country at the ~~the~~ time of danger is our

_____.

b. duty

5. A kind of government where people vote to elect leaders who run the country is known as _____.

b. Democracy

Right to live and travel anywhere in the country is our _____ right

The _____, to our Constitution describes India as a democratic, socialist, secular, republic.

preamble

~~We must defend our country at the the time of danger is our _____~~

~~A kind of government where people vote to elect leaders who run the country is known as _____~~

Q.1. Who is the ~~father~~ of the constitution?

ans - James Madison is known as the ^{father} of the constitution.

2. Democracy is a better form of ~~over~~ government than monarchy. Why?

ans - Democracy is a better form of government than monarchy because democracy means that all the people of the country will choose or elect leaders who would form the government.

This kind of government is known as a democracy. Thus our country is no longer ruled by kings. If the people are not happy with their elected leaders, they can be removed from their posts and Monarchy means the state is ruled by a king or queen. The monarchy is ~~is~~ hereditary, that is, when the monarch has full power. In others there is also a democratic government and the king or queen does not have complete power.