

H.W
10/11/22

Q- Early on winter morning, we see drops of water on parked cars and plants. Why?

ans Because of condensation. During the night when the hot air comes into contact with some cold surface, water vapour present in it condenses on the cold surface in the form of ~~droplets~~ droplets. These tiny drops of water are called dew drop.