

Homework 1

- a) water, wind and ice are the major agents of gradation
- b) The highest waterfalls in the world is Angel Falls of Venezuela ~~is~~ in South Africa.
- c) The landscape is being continuously worn away by two processes weathering and gradation.
- d) when rivers begin to break up into a number of streams they are called delt lakes.
- e) oxbow lakes are found in fertile lands.
- 1) what is erosion?
It is a process of blowing out small particles on land with the help of natural agents.

- 2) They are formed when the river cuts down to smaller streams.
- 3) when the meander lake come to an end a mouth like structure forms when
- 4) when the meanders cut down to form oxbow lake.