

1) What does the constitution say with regard to equality?
Ans) All individuals ~~have~~ are equal before law and every one has equal rights and opportunities. People are free to choose any kind of work they wish to do.

2) Sometimes people make prejudiced comments in your presence. We are often not position to do anything about this because it is difficult to say something right then and there. Divide the class into groups discuss what they could do in one of these situation:

a) A friend begins to tease a classmate because he is poor.
I would try to convince my friend that being poor is not a crime nor ~~tease~~ a matter of laughter. Instead, he should take care of his dignity and self-respect.

b) You are watching tv with your family and one of them makes a prejudicial comment about a particular religious community.
I would stop him/her to do that.

c) Children in your class refuse to share their food with a particular person because they think that ~~he~~ he/she is dirty.
I would advice my classmates to be friendly with ~~one~~ and all.
