

1 The manual pollination of plants with getting better varieties is called artificial pollination.

2 The steps of artificial pollination are: Emasculation and Bagging

3 It is useful because the horticulturist can make a new variety and better quality variety of the species