

1 Control and coordination means to take charge of & the functioning and work together in sync

2 The nervous system keeps us alert about the surroundings and the endocrine system controls and coordinates the function of the body.