

Rivers

Rivers are very much important in our life from social economic or religious aspects. They provide check, transportation, source of livelihood, electricity, sea minerals as well and gemstones. Many rivers in India have ~~god~~ got the status of a goddess or a mother in various Hindu religious books. River 'Ganga' is the longest river of India, and by water flow, Brahmaputra is the largest one.

Rivers are the best place of tourism
like river, rafting, boating, cruise, ship travelling etc.
