

World war-1 was fought between German and Europe on the Christmas eve

All the soldiers of both the side were frustrated by seeing the deaths. They decided to stop fighting for a period of time and celebrated Christmas by singing carols and ~~gift~~ giving gifts to each other. They also lit up trees with candles. Everybody The Author described this event as 'one human episode among all atrocities