

Paragraph on Hyderabad

In this poem the poet wrote about the market of Hyderabad. She said that the merchants are displaying the things that they have to sell and they are also selling turbans, purple coloured tunics, mirrors and daggers. The vendors are selling saffron, ~~at~~ lentil and rice. The maidens are grinding spices and the pedlars are making ivory dice. The goldsmith is selling wristlet

Date _____
Page _____

anklet and ring, bells for peign;

~~girdle~~ girdles, scabbards all of gold. The fruitment is selling plum, citron etc and the musicians are playing,

~~guitar~~, drum, cithar etc. The magician is chanting spells and the flower girl is making garlands for the bride and bridegroom and making perfume of white blossoms to ~~per~~ perfume on the dead body.